

ALBANY, N.Y.
TIMES-UNION

MORNING 70,944
SUNDAY 118,034

STAT

JUN 15 1961

Taylor Mum On CIA Job

Telford Taylor, retired brigadier general and a native of Schenectady yesterday declined to comment on reports he is receiving active support to succeed Allen W. Dulles as head of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Contacted at his New York City law office, Taylor told The Times-Union, "I know nothing about it and I have nothing to say."

The Newark Star-Ledger said Taylor's supporters claim he has been interviewed extensively for the CIA post.

MORI/CDF